Majestie Boof Garden. Reputation, the newest Universal Jewel super-feature, starring Priscilla Dean and coming to the Majestic Roof Garden tonight, Friday and Saturday, is heralded as a dramatic thunderbolt of tremendous power. After her two recent successes. The Virgin of Stimboul and Outside the Law, Universal realised it would require a photoplay of extraordinary strength to complete the dramatic trinity. From all accounts, Reputation not only proves its right to follow the first two, but many reviewers have declared it to be by far the most powerful drama projected on the screen in many months. An educational screen in many months. An educational weekly and a comedy will make up the remainder of the picture program. Al. audiences. Benson will present an entire new program of songs illustrated with films. Danbury.—A joint convention of the to the fore. Prairie Flowers, a most successful novel by James B. Hendryx, has been made into a motion picture by William Fox under the title Prairie Trails, and will be presented at the Breed theatre to-day. Tom Mix, the celebrated cowboy star, plays the principal role. A few months ago, it will be remembered, Mix scored a great success with The Texan, a thrilling western picture telling the adventures of dashing Tex Benton. The Texan was filmed from a popular Hendryx novel, and Prairie Trails is a sequeit in it, giving more adventures of Benton. dryx novel, and Prairie Trails is a sequel to it, giving more adventures of Benton and in particular his love romance.
